*Why am I here?
And you — are your reasons
the same as mine —
only different?*

*I'd like to find her, or him,
and knowledge.
but there's too many people and too much to EVER know.
Is everything and everyone relevant?*

Learning is interesting — people especially — but classes are, well . . .

*I wonder if I'll ever be considered a philosopher, or doctor
a poet
a lover
a person?*

*Learning . . .
Is that what it's all about?
What other people know?
and value?
and love?*

Or ...
Should I learn to 'do my own thing'?
Create my own place in the world.

Grades . . .
Friends . . .
Love . . .
Must everything be a battle?

*It can't be easy.
If it was . . .
Would we learn?*

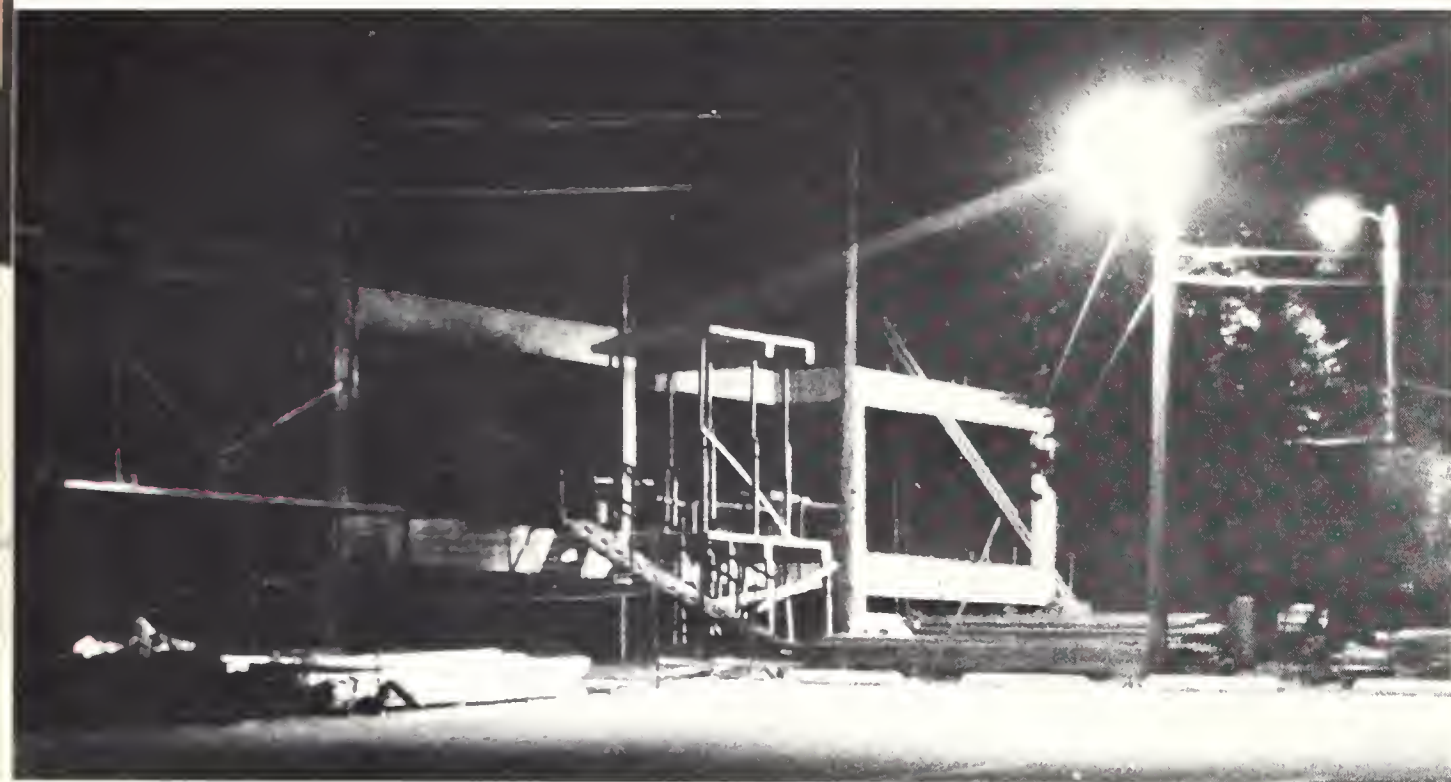

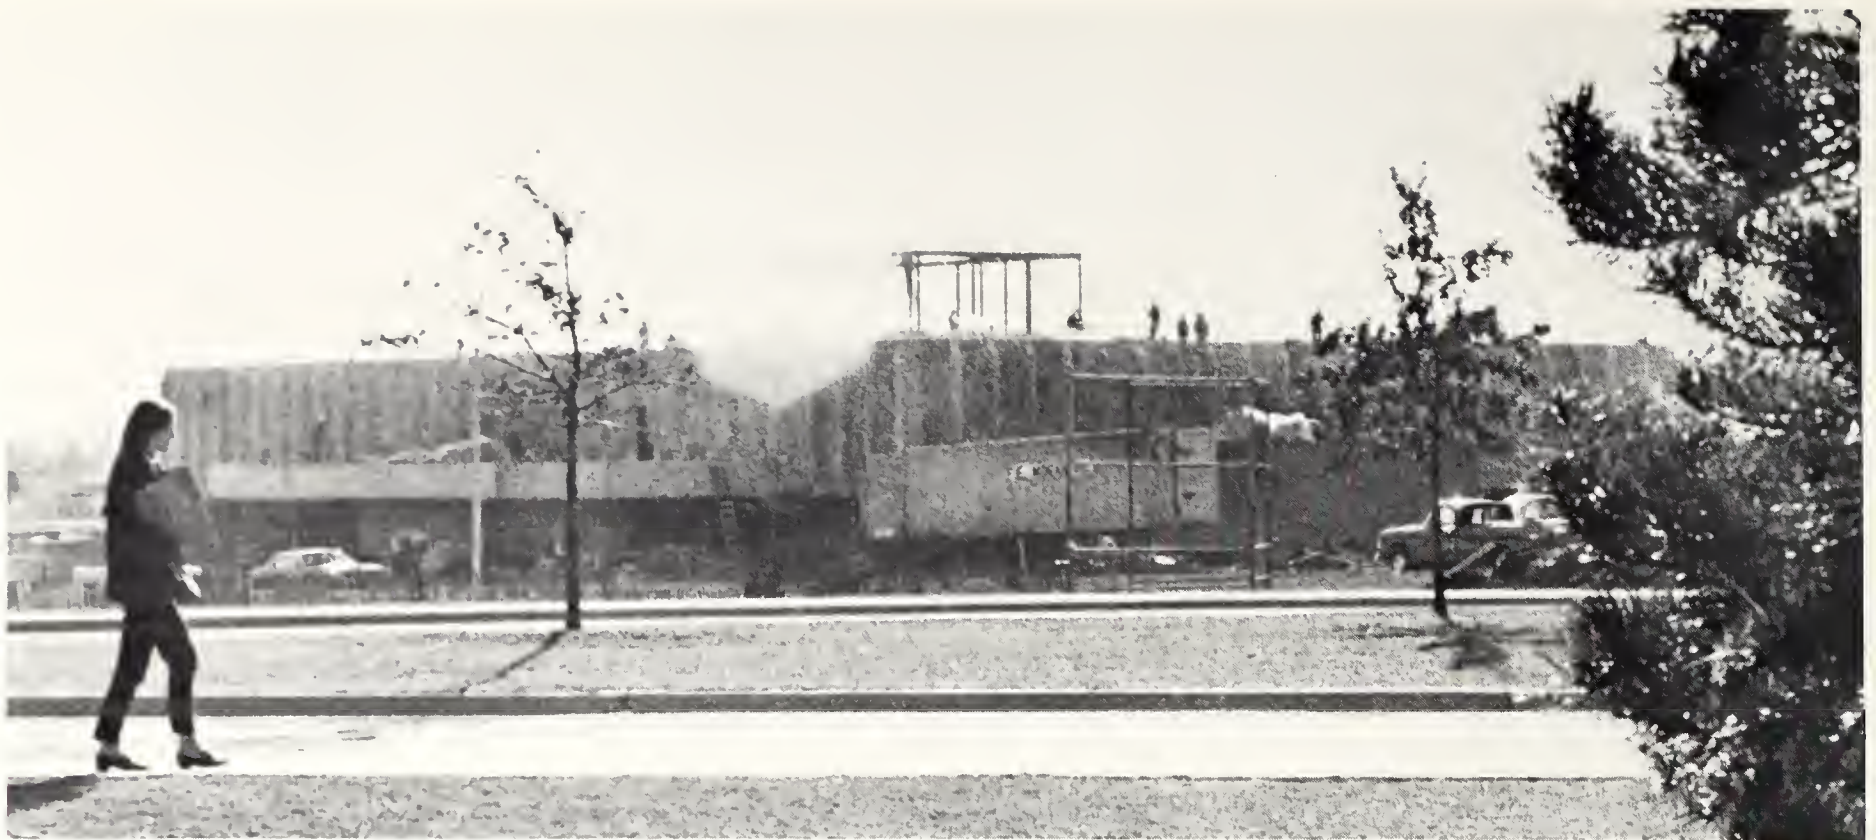

*Nature can show us lots of things.
And a class in the sunshine can throw new light on any subject.*

Smoke, heat,
... observing,
... cold steel, friction ...

*Labs are great, I think,
because I'm an analyst,
and I enjoy studying . . .
people.*

Funny, isn't it?
That the world shrinks,
as we expand.

Buildings, people, tasks,
all growing.
There's more of everything
— except Love.

*I'm a little wiser . . . perhaps,
and a lot sadder now.
There have been many changes . . .
but few improvements.*

*Four years of innovations — just to be trying something.
I'm sad I'm leaving . . .
but I'm glad I'm through.*

A moral character is attached to autumnal scenes. The flowers fading like our hopes, the leaves falling like our years, the clouds fleeting like our illusions, the light diminishing like our intelligence, the sun growing colder like our affections, the rivers becoming frozen like our lives — all bear secret relations to our destinies.

— Chateaubriand

For ISU, autumn marks the beginnings — of love, of life, of peace, of existence with others.

HOMECOMING

The 1969 Homecoming weekend was officially ushered in at the Friday evening pep rally at Hancock Stadium. Based on the theme "Delightful Dreams of Disney," Homecoming activities reflected the enthusiasm and imagination of ISU students. Prior to the October 17-19 weekend, dormitories prepared their entries for the dorm dec judging. First place winner was Walker Hall's "Enchanted Forest Castle" guarded by Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck. A brief skirmish between a ferocious EIU dragon and a Redbird knight resulted in a Redbird victory.

"Panther in Wonderlost" earned Tri-Towers a second place trophy. They presented the four ranges of man's ventures — adventureland, frontierland, fantasyland, and tomorrowland — on each side of a Disneyland castle setting.

Continuing the Disney character's theme, the parade entries combined colorful creations and slogans to delightfully entertain the ISU spectators. The parade included the ISU marching band and several high school bands. Floats, sponsored by various classes and campus organizations, added cheer and beauty to the parade. Interspersed between the floats and bands were specially marked cars carrying President Braden and other ISU officials.

Despite the cold, blustery weather, ISU fans cheered their team on to victory as they played their first Homecoming game on the Astro Turf field. The Redbirds decisively beat the Eastern Illinois Panthers 37-0.

In settings inspired by the Disney theme, the Homecoming dances were held Saturday night. Bob Boyd's Band played in the Union Ballroom; while Tony Zamora's Jazz group supplied the music in the Red Door. The International Soul Review performed at McCormick Gym.

This year's Homecoming play was The Hostage by Brendan Behan. The play dwelt on the bawdy lives of Irish citizens who were aroused by the British capture of an Irish rebel. In retaliation, the Irish seized a British lad for a "hostage."

ENTERTAINMENT BOARD

Specials Provide Entertainment for ISU

Four specials highlighted the line-up of events sponsored by the Entertainment Board this year. Johnny Mathis and Dionne Warwick appeared in the fall series; B. J. Thomas, backed by "The Rotary Connection," and Rod McKuen both appeared in the spring specials. Johnny Mathis presented a strong characterization of various songs; Warwick brought her own style of medleys; B. J. Thomas had his best-selling hit "Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head;" and the evening spent with Rod McKuen proved that "his voice does range from smoky purr to a strangled whisper."

Other presentations in the fall series included the Prague Symphony, the official orchestra of Czechoslovakia, on their first American tour; Frula, the Yugoslavian dancers; and "Cabaret," a Broadway musical. "NOVELLA" Nelson, a black entertainment singer; "SING ALONG WITH MITCH", featuring Mitch Miller and his seventy-five piece orchestra; "YOUR OWN THING," a satire based on Shakespeare's Twelfth Night and "Die Fledeimans," a German opera by Mozart performed by the nationally known "Turnau Opera Co.," were additional features this spring.

Winter starts out wet-roofed,
fog-ridden,
dripping into puddles,
collecting sodden leaves and freezing them in mud footprints.

Light snow, powder airy blowing by soundlessly
in yellow sunlight.
Lands cold and wet upon the eyes
of a white static world.

Heavy yesterdays' snow
overfrozen,
beaten by glass pellets,
gives in to a duller world,
now stung gray.

VARUNAS

"Shoes" A Success

The ISU Varunas splashed their way into the '69-'70 season with their presentation of "Shoes" early in May. The annual synchronized swim show was both composed and performed by the members of the club. Plans for the show began early in October, and rehearsals were underway by the beginning of February. The Varunas organization is open to both male and female students. Its main purpose is to give those students interested in swimming not only a chance to perfect their routines, but also an opportunity to merely pursue their interest in attempting new aquatic art figures.

ORCHESIS

Perform Concerts

Orchesis is a modern dance organization composed of both junior and senior groups, designed to bring dance to the community and to the University. Both groups participate in the organization's co-concerts. In December, the senior group toured in conjunction with the American Pioneers, the former Lloyd Shaw Dancers, to Champaign to see Al Huang. Among their many other activities were the annual spring concert and traveling to neighboring high schools to present demonstrations on dance. The members also sponsored Al Huang, famous internationalist, who presented a master lesson and concert on campus.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

Students Entertain Community Thru Plays

The University Theatre serves a dual role in preparing theatre students for their roles as future dramatic instructors, and also providing theatrical performances for the campus and community. The ISU Repertory Company, which is in its third year, is unique by the fact that it is the only company financed by federal funds to provide theatre for elementary and high schools. Performances by the graduate students are presented in Westhoff theatre and in the Mabel C. Allen laboratory theatre. Productions this year have included such works as "Oedipus the King,"

"Raynard the Fox," a children's play; "The Hostage," "Enrico IV," "Midsummer Night's Dream," "A Phoenix to Frenquin," and a program of American literature entitled "I Am Waiting." Besides these, two evenings of eight one - act plays were delivered to ISU audiences. Thus the University Theatre has provided an outlet for talent and interest in theatre as well as developing pride in the discipline of the dramatic arts. A staff of thirteen professional instructors and twenty-one graduate assistants helped theatre students in presenting this year's repertoire.

LOWELL MASON

Experience Gained Thru Musical

The Lowell Mason MENC Club, Music Education National Convention, is an organization on campus to provide opportunity and experience that will help its members in teaching music in class and in other activities. The organization is comprised of music majors, minors, and resources and is strictly self-supporting. Members had a hayride and held a candy sale to raise money. A dance was also sponsored in the Union. The highlight of the year was the club's own student directed and acted musical "Fantastiks," which met with success. The club sponsored a field trip to Chicago area in order to attend various plays and concerts.

Hey mud and wonder
And all those earthy things!
I should cut loose
And join you.
Afterall,
April rains only to
Melt winter castles
And make puddles
For stomping through.
We're all crowned clowns
Somersaulting the grass,
Because it's Spring's world
And we're breathing her air.

STUNT SHOW

First Place: Hewett-Manchester

1969 was an important year for the University Men's Club when it presented ISU's 50th Annual Stunt Show. This show was dedicated to the memory of Ralph H. Linkins, who was instrumental in helping men students organize the first stunt show on campus.

As a result of his fine work, the stunt shows have become an activity which many have enjoyed over the years. The 1969 show was directed by Jim Petit and Jim Clark. Jackie Johnson and Jim Clark hosted the evenings' performances. All students had the chance to participate in the activities of planning, working, and presenting the show. The most coveted award was the first place trophy, and this year it was won by Hewett-Manchester-Watterson's presentation "To Be Named Later:" or "What To Call Our Stunt Show?" "But Everybody Has One." Second place went to Atkin-Colby's "Cram-A-Lot," and third place to Hamilton-Whitten's "The Cold Facts." Walker-Fell-Dunn-Barton and Tri Towers received participation awards for their presentation of "Haire" and "Fourteen Days In-May," respectively.

GAMMA PHI

Record Crowd Enjoys Annual Circus

Thick masses of people hide the usual boundaries of the room. Shimmering lights disclose massive structures suspended between ceiling and floor. Laughter floats gaily above the music of the ISU Statesmen. Children's faces brighten when funny men with big shoes, large noses and gigantic smiles approach. Can it really be true that this wonderful, magical place was our familiar Horton Fieldhouse only a week ago? Yes, for this was the setting for the Gammi Phi Circus, the climax of a year of strenuous training, endurance, cooperation, and patience of the talented members of Gamma Phi. A record crowd of over 9,000 enjoyed the event and shared the pleasant atmosphere created by Ringmaster Keith Backes.

Service awards, which are given each year to seniors who contribute the most to Gamma Phi in service and spirit, were presented last year to Tom Honn and Cindy Haynie.

Striving to promote physical fitness and enrichment of life through recreation, Gamma Phi serves as a valuable representative of the university. This year's Gamma Phi actives included: K. Backes, T. Best, A. Borema, R.

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

One of several of the bands on our campus is the University Orchestra. Membership is open to anyone who would like to participate in a concert band. The band features unlimited instrumentation and their concerts have been a source of pleasure for the campus and community. The University Orchestra is under the direction of Professor Kistner.

CONCERT BAND

Fostering a musical outlet for talented wind and percussion instrumentalists, the fifty-four member Concert Band blended to express many moods in the selections performed in two campus concerts. The band was well-received during its performance at the State Meeting of the Illinois Music Educators Association in Peoria. Through the presentation of several clinics in the surrounding high schools, the Concert Band helped to elevate the musical proficiency of its younger counterparts.

STAGE BAND

The statesmen is one of the two formal stagebands on our campus. This past year they have taken two tours to various high schools throughout Illinois, presenting a series of clinics and concerts. They have also provided music for the Gamma Phi Circus, basketball games and the Fell Hall formal. The band presented Mr. Gerald Wilson, professional jazz clinician, April 4 for their Jazz Clinic. They were also featured on television this year, appearing on Channel 3 in the fall and Channel 19 in the spring. The Jazz Lab Band is the second of the ISU stagebands. Its primary purpose is as a training band for those seeking training in jazz. They too played at basketball games and presented concerts for area high schools. Membership for both bands is through audition.

VARSDITY BAND

The energy of Mr. Roger Faulmann was one of the unifying forces which successfully molded the Varsity Band together this year. Under his direction, the group presented a Christmas Concert and Spring concerts. A Spring tour to high schools in and around Central Illinois was also scheduled for the group. Membership to the band is based on individual auditions in the fall.

GLEE CLUB

Glee Club, representing men from all academic departments, provides enjoyment for its enthusiastic members and audiences through its many choral performances. Activities this year included a spring tour and several nightly performances. The fifty member group performed music from all historical periods. This years accompanist for the group was Levenius Smith.

MADRIGALS

Dressed entirely in sixteenth century Old English costumes, sixteen madrigal singers entertained audiences at the Fourteenth Annual Christmas Madrigal Dinner concert. In addition to performing in fifteen Christmas programs, the group presented a Spring Concert as well as appeared at the national meeting of the Music Educators National Conferences in Chicago. Music from the Renaissance to the contemporary was presented in their spring concert.

CONCERT CHOIR

The ISU University Concert Choir is composed of 60 members, who audition in the fall during registration week for Professor Rederick and other officers in the Music department. The choir sang recently published compositions at a "New Music Clinic" in November. In January and May the choir gave concerts in Capen. On March 8 they performed the "Bell Shazzer's Feast" by Walton with the IWU Choir and the Bloomington Norma Community Orchestra.

LADIES IN RED

The Ladies in Red (formerly the Women's Chorus) performs extensively on campus, and often tour the surrounding towns and cities. Each Christmas season, the Ladies in Red present a program of light, entertaining Christmas music in each ISU dormitory. During the spring, as an annual tribute to a famous composer of light music, the Ladies in Red presented the music of George Gershwin, Cole Porter, and Jerome Kern.

SPECIAL SECTION

A Little Known, Small Beginning

The Illinois State Normal University was started in Major's Hall in Bloomington in 1857. "It was not until the fall of 1860 that the school was moved to Normal. It was from then until 1891 housed in one building. — the old main building."

—1911 Index

In 1862 Bloomington competed for the state university, offering a bid of $470,000.

However, due to bribery, the lower bid of $285,000 belonging to Champaign received the bid in 1867.

—from A History of Urban America by Glaab and Brown

The tall pine tree pictured below was planted by university officials on May 3, 1865 as the funeral train of the late President Lincoln passed through Normal. It was planted behind the flag pole and to the left of "Old Main."

ISNU, A Rough

Sketch of a Century

"Old Normal", as ISNU was loyally referred to, did indeed begin small. The original faculty of the university numbered nine; while the student enrollment hardly surpassed 327 in 1857.

The smallest commencement class was in 1863 when three men and four women graduated.

The years 1870 to 1879 was the only time when there have been more men than women on campus.

The Vidette, which is now the school paper, was originally published as a literary magazine. By June 1889, this monthly publication, had increased to thirty-two pages as compared with its first issue of February 1887 containing only twenty pages.

ISNU switched to the semester system in the fall of 1935.

Smith House, the first men's dormitory, was open for residency in 1935. (It was off-campus.)

Centennial celebrations were as extravagant as the past century had been for ISNU. The Pageant held in 1957 included 35 title roles and a supporting cast of 150. The hymn for this special occasion was "Long Live . . . Strong Live . . . ISU." In commemoration, the license for the state of Illinois were red and white in 1957.

A Castle, The Navy, and 2,995 Sq. Ft.

Governor Altgeld believed that each university in Illinois should have a castle. Consequently, Cook Hall was built on our campus. The Castle, which is the oldest building still standing on campus, served as the backdrop for the Centennial Pageant.

McCormick Gym has one red wagon in storage. There are approximately 700 swimsuits on hand at McCormick.

Fell Hall, which was built in 1918, was used by the Navy between the years 1943 to 1945. During those two years, a fire caused extensive damage to the top floor and the attic of the building.

The entire population of El Paso, Illinois, could comfortably take up residence in Watterson Towers. The Johns are the same in both towers of the Watterson complex.

The ISU Textbook Service was opened to the students in the summer of 1959. There is 2,995 square footage of floor space in the building, which has not expanded even though enrollment has quadrupled. As of this year there are 25,000 volumes in storage at the "food" warehouse.

Library and Union: Backbone of the Quad

A recent survey of Milner library disclosed that 378,912 volumes of assorted knowledge are contained between its ivory walls. Besides books, there is a collection of maps totalling 139,917 in number.

770,842 persons entered Milner during the school term of '68-'69.

Of the above number 263,078 were in the stacks.

No record was found stating how many left the library.

Plans for a University Union were conceived in 1891 by the Philadelphian and Wrightonian literary debating societies of ISNU. Due to the Panic of 1893 and the second World War, the union was not completed or dedicated until May 1957. The Union would have cost $12,000.00 then; now the present cost of the Union is $150,000.00.

During December '69, 70, 802 people used the facilities of the union.

The Cage served 33,381 people in the month of December '69.

There Are People Behind the Monuments

The President of a university plays a very important role in changing and modeling the university community. Charles Hovey, the first president of ISNU, organized the Normal Rifles and they left for the Civil War in 1861. There is also a little known side to the history of ISU presidents.

Arnold Tompkins served as president for one year between Cook and Felmley. Robert G. Bone rode a camel through Normal in the '65 Homecoming.

President Samuel Braden was born at Hoihow, Hainan, China. Braden is the author of two books on economics entitled Economics:

Principles and Problems, and Economic Problems of War.

Orson Leroy Manchester was made principal of University High in 1892.

Richard Edwards, second president, was born in Wales.

Jessie Fell was the town's first lawyer.

Daniel Wilkins was a schoolmaster in Normal.

The following: Barton, Horton, Linkins, Rambo, Westhoff, Whitten, Hamilton, Hancock, Mable Claire Allen, and Rachael Cooper all taught at Illinois State at the same time.

And Just to Mention . . .

"Occasionally we attempt to introduce new and different foods in order to give our students an opportunity to taste and sample foods that normally are not served in many homes. We believe that this helps students to recognize unusual foods that they would not be exposed to ordinarily."

—Food Service Handout

1500 pounds of potatoes are used daily in the food service.

The Central Bakery of the Food Service produces 400 dozen donuts and 500 dozen dinner rolls daily.

"During the 1960 Homecoming, returning alumni marveled at the completed Hamilton-Whitten Halls, visible for miles just as the steeple of Old Main had been."

—The Eleventh Decade
by Marshal

Now Grown and Going Up

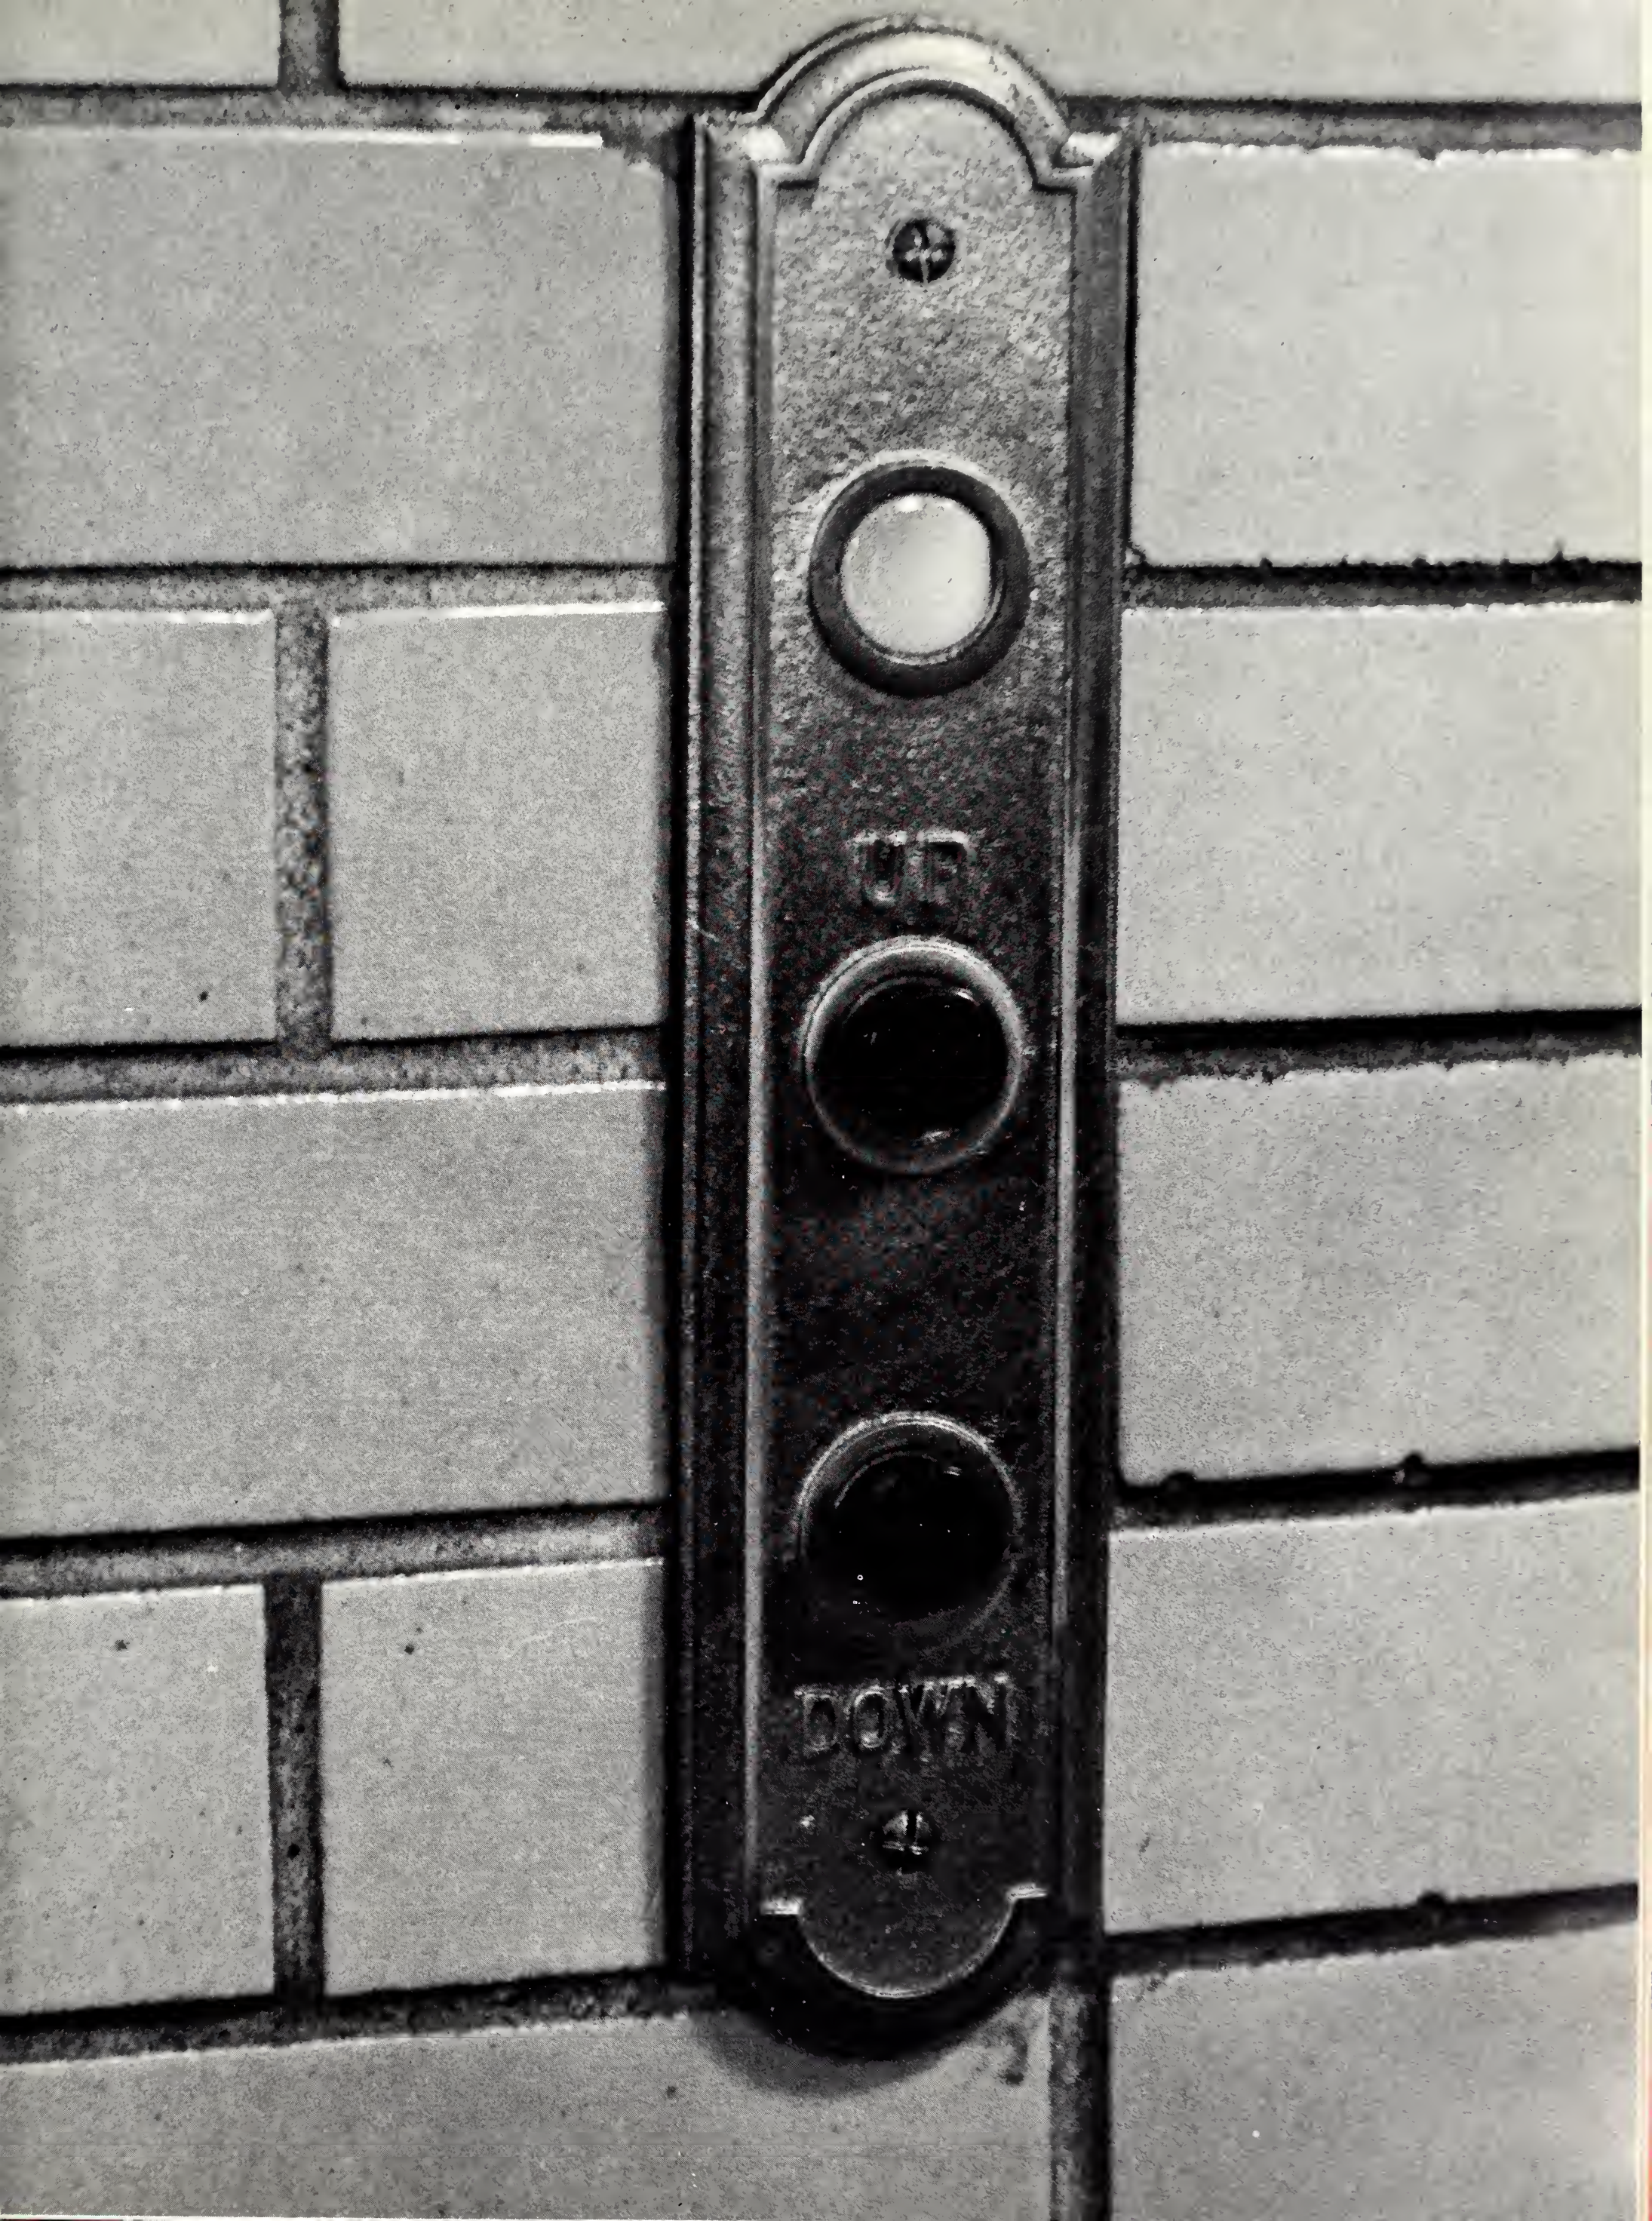

The department of security plays an important role in providing parking facilities for university students. A total of 2,032 parking spaces exist for the 3,969 student parking permits issued this year.

In February 1970, the psychology department had only two rats.

A biology instructor has students play telephone while touring the Green House.

In the past one hundred thirteen years ISU has had a tremendous growth spurt. The land has increased from one building to a sixty-eight acre campus valued at, exclusive of equipment, 54 million dollars. A campus that once could not afford to build a $12,000 Union now has a biennial budget of 52.8 million dollars.

Football

Individual and Team Records Fall Before Varsity Squad

Coach Bitcon gives Jim Petit some last minute advice on a play.

Bruce Cullen broke and set six new individual records for the Illinois State Redbird varsity football team. With two other new individual records and six new team records, the squad held to a 5-5 season.

Redbirds, playing on Astro Turf for the first time, drew a season record of 76,000 fans at six home games, averaging 12,666 spectators per game.

Even though a junior, Cullen set school records for most touchdowns in one season, 14; most yards rushed for one game, 237; most touchdowns in a career, 24; most points in one season, 86; most yards rushed for one season, 862; and most rushing attempts, 184.

Cullen ranked 17th in NCAA College Division football scoring statistics for the 1969 season. He also was voted most valuable player by his teammates.

Ron Koesler tied the 1957 record for the longest punt with a 68 yard kick against Akron. And, Mike Curtis kicked a 45 yard field goal against Ferris State for another record distance.

As a team, the Redbirds set records for most rushing yardage in a game, most rushing attempts in a game, most total offense, most plays in a game, most first downs in a game, and most first downs by rushing in a game.

Defensive end Jerry Krieg was selected to 44-man Kodak College Division All-American squad selected by the American Football Coaches Association. Krieg was the only Interstate Conference athlete to be selected.

The 1969 Interstate Conference All-Star Football Team had seven Illinois State players. Bill Bolinder was named offensive end; Charles Phillips, offensive tackle; Dan Rogers, offensive guard; Bruce Cullen, offensive back; Jerry Krieg, defensive end; Jim Wiltz, defensive tackle; and Jim Covert, defensive back.

Jim Covert and Jed Waters, both seniors, were selected honorary captains.

ISU "Birdies" started their season with losses, but ended with wins for a 3-2 record.

The freshmen squad was dropped 28-27 by Northern Illinois Frosh, and 26-19 by Western Illinois Frosh at the beginning of the season. But, under direction of Coach Otis Vaughan and assistant coach Dick Portee, the team came back to outscore Eastern Illinois 34-6; Joliet Community College 28-21; and Indiana State Frosh 27-6.

Graduate assistants Harold Olsen and Hank Guenther, both having been on the Redbird varsity, aided the coaches to train the frosh squad.

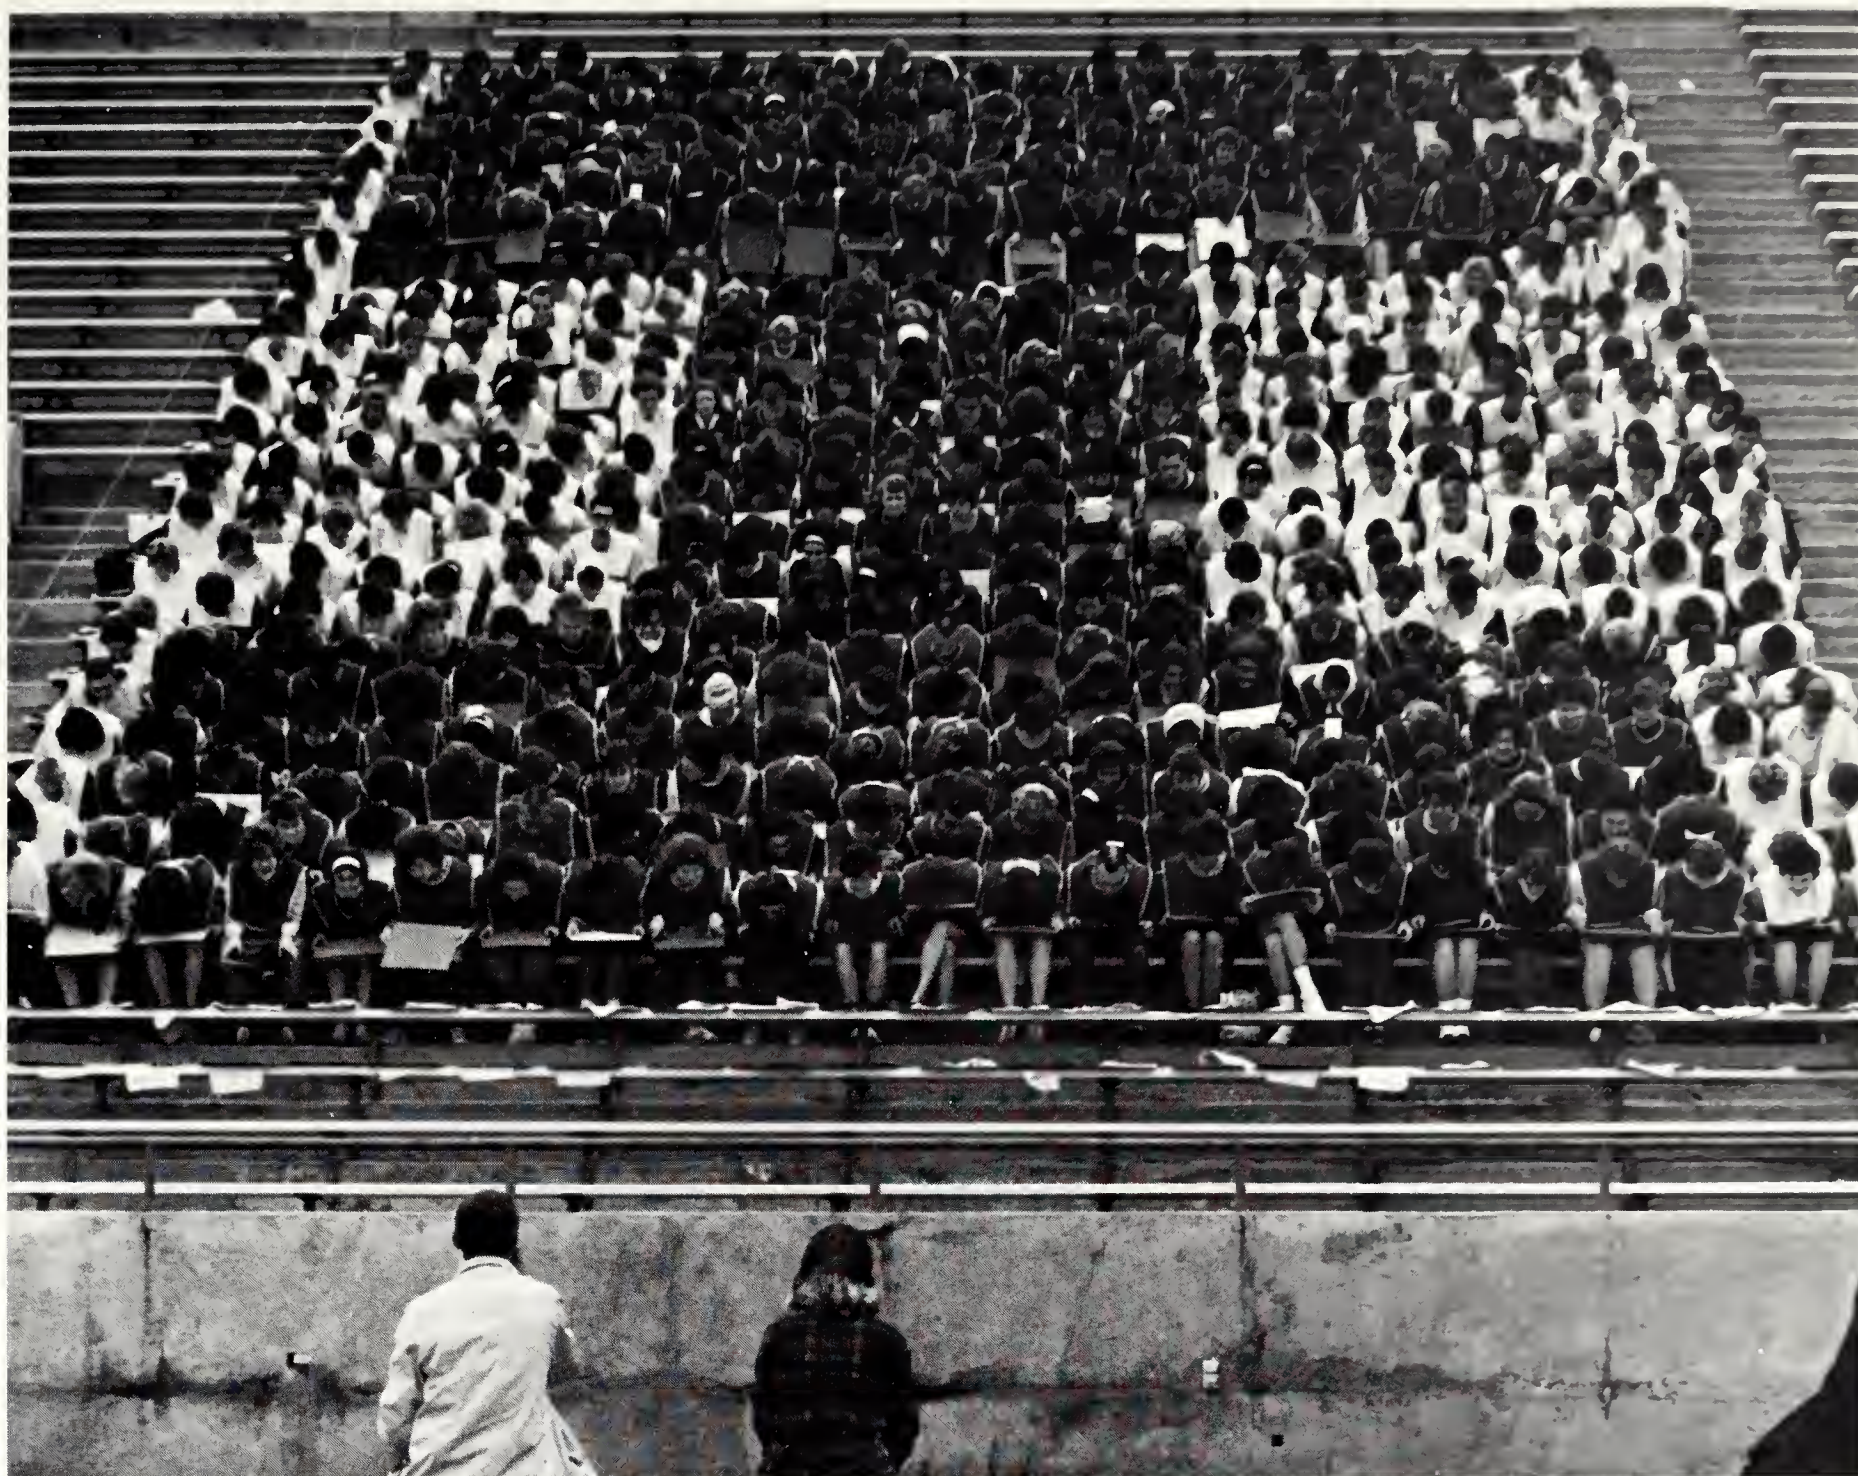

In the defensive secondary, Danny Jones made six interceptions in five games. Jim Grow, Ron Shade, and Terry Mitchell all had a single interception. Grow also kicked points-after-touchdowns, missing two of 18 attempts.

Tailback Bruce Elliott led the squad in scoring with 36 points, even though he did not play the first game and part of the second because of a back injury. Steve Mardis was second in scoring with 30 points.

Coach Vaughan commented that Steve Mardis had done a good job in sprint-out passing. Receivers were Mike Sweat, Ron Swade, and Walt Smith.

Others mentioned for outstanding performance were Robin Reuther, Joe Leaman, and Gary Meyer.

Cross Country

Harriers Gain Best Record in ISU History

In 1965, when Coach Roger Weller became cross country coach at Illinois State, only a minimum five ran the long distances. But, 15 candidates for the 1969 season produced the best cross country record in the history of ISU.

The young squad came up with a 14-1 dual record and finished fourth in the NCAA College Division. They also showed up second in the conference.

Alan Taylor, an NCAA College Division All-American with a ninth place in the national championship meet last fall, returned to repeat his All-American standing and to place seventh in the national championship. Taylor was also elected captain and voted most valuable player.

Two-time lettermen Tony Edgecomb, who captained the past two ISU squads, was named honorary captain. Edgecomb was the only senior on the squad for the 1969 season.

Other returning lettermen cited by Weller were Ken Carlson, Larry Closen, Stan Dilley, and Angelo Rinchiuso. All are juniors and should be returning in 1970.

Basketball

Cagers Attempt to Gain Fourth Straight Title

Continuing to rebuild strength in the basketball squad, Coach Jim Collie worked with a young team to gain a fourth straight Interstate Conference Championship and a fourth straight NCAA post-season bid. At mid-season, the prospects looked dim because of lack of experience and injuries.

Six letterman returned from last season. Jerry Crabtree (6-2), who moved into the lineup near the close of last season, and Dave Handy (6-3), a regular starter last year, were two promising players. Crabtree was a forward from the NCAA tournament lineup. And, Handy was the only two-year lettermen on the squad.

In addition to Crabtree and Handy, Loran Boe (6-4), Steve Jackson (6-3), Dale Janssen (6-6½), and Tom Jensen (6-3) all returned as lettermen. Greg Guy (6-3), a sophomore transfer from Indiana State, and Sherrill Campbell

(6-2), a transfer from Hofstra University, also added strength to the team.

Several reinforcements moved up from the freshmen team. Willie Williams (6-3) led the frosh in both scoring and rebounding. Jim Smith (6-5), Myron Litwiller (6-5), Bob Esslinger (6-6), Mike Payne (6-1), and Frank Reed (6-0) also provided strength to the squad.

The 1969 season ended the rivalry of ISU and Illinois Wesleyan, and also Coach Collie's position as head basketball coach. Collie will remain at Illinois State in an administrative capacity.

In addition, ISU finished its final year in the Interstate Conference and in the College Division of the NCAA. Illinois State will join Northern Illinois, Southern Illinois, Ball State, and Indiana State in 1970-71 to form a new University Division League.

Freshmen Basketball

Freshmen Cagers Develop Skills for Varsity Play

ISU had a 17-player squad that included major all-state guard Doug Collins, little all-state guard Daniel Witt, and a third guard, Craig Spiers, who received mention on the major all-state team.

The squad averaged 6 feet 3½ inches, even though 10 out of the 17 were under that height. Paul Jansen was the tallest squad member at 6-5.

In all, 11 ISU freshmen were voted all conference honors and 10 were captains of their high school teams. Collins had averaged 24.8 points per high school game. And, Witt set high school records of 1,444 points in three years, 656 points in one season, and 47 points in one game. Spiers set a Joliet West record with 37 points in one game.

At mid-season, the squad was 8-6, and the remaining games unpredictable. In any case, Coach Dale Cruse, assisted by former Redbird George Terry, worked to develop the squad for next season's varsity play.

Redbird Wrestlers Grapple for Fifth Conference Title

Illinois State grapplers tapped most of their strength from a handful of key wrestlers remaining from last season's fifth Interstate Conference championship team in the past six years. Talent from 11 sophomores and 15 freshmen added to the strength of Coach Bob Koehler's 31-man roster.

Heading the squad were two Little All-Americans, senior heavyweight Fred Beilfuss, an All-American as a junior, and sophomore 167 pounder Eric Bates. Beilfuss had a 15-4-2 record last season and also was Conference champion. Bates, co-captain, ranked nationally as a freshman, with a sixth in the NCAA College Division Tournament. Bates was also IIAC champion last season.

Other returning lettermen were senior Tom Tennyson (118), junior Steve Pozansky (150), sophomore Tom Hannah (177), and senior Jay Few (167). Co-captain Scott Jacobs (142) joined the squad second semester.

Redbird grapplers opened their season at the Northern Iowa Invitational. Bates won a first and Mike Fiorini made it to the semi-finals. Bates also won a first at the University of Iowa Tournament, with Chris Quigley (126) and Fiorini winning seconds.

Gymnastics

Young Gymnast Squad Work for National Prominence

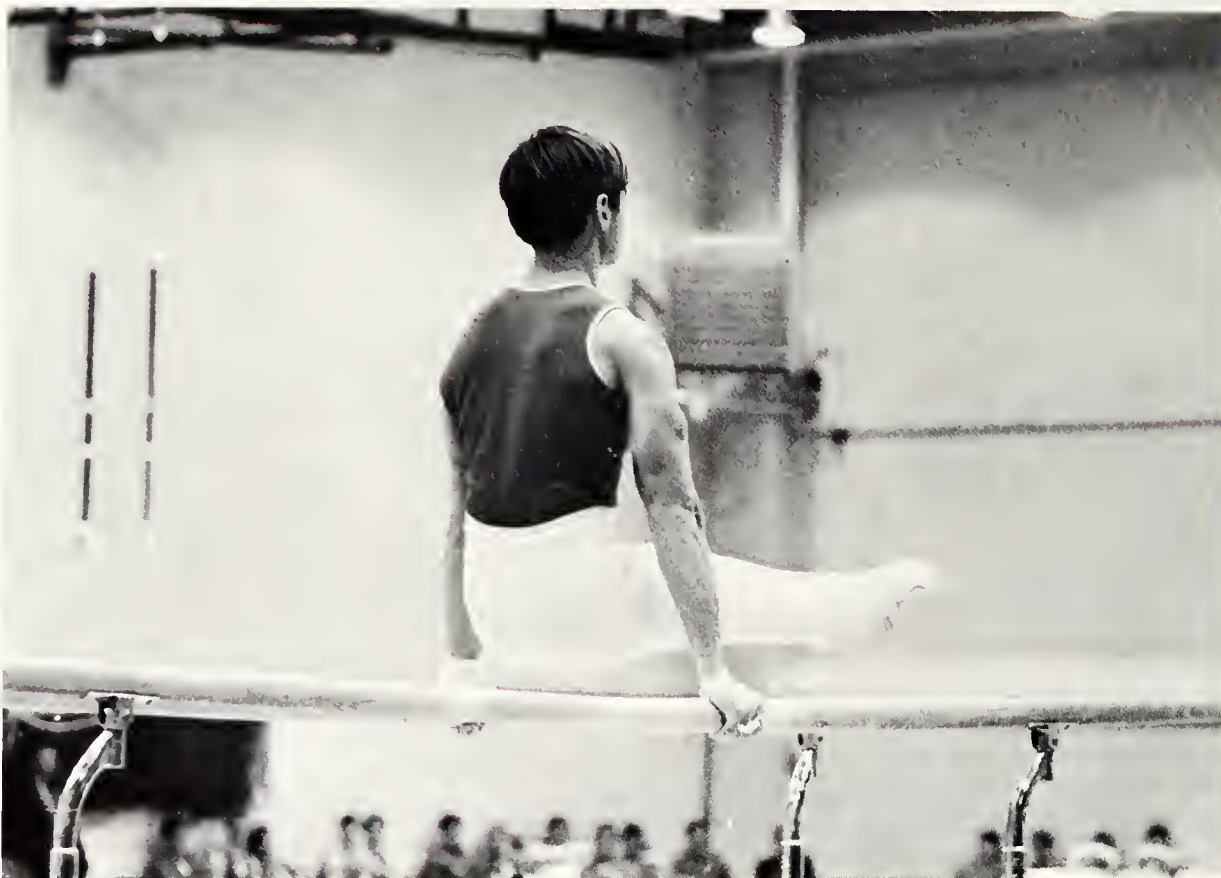

Last season, Redbird gymnasts won the Interstate Conference championship with only two seniors. This season, parallel bars specialist Lee Combs was the squad's only senior. But, eleven lettermen and a strong freshmen group returned for the squad's last chance at national prominence in the NCAA College Division.

Southern Illinois and Memphis State dropped the Redbirds at the opening of the season. But, the squad began moving with a win over Northern Illinois. Coach Wayne Truex and assistant coach Al Weith, former ISU gymnast, then took the squad to the National Gymnastics Clinic at Sarasota, Florida, for added strength. The six teams met in the next month all fell to the powerful young team.

ISU's 22-man squad included eight athletes who had competed for state high school championship teams under direction of former Redbird gymnast Tom Walthouse. An outstanding freshman among these athletes was prep All-American Terry Haines, two-time state high school trampoline champion. Haines competed this season in floor exercise and vaulting.

Junior lettermen were Curt Haines on the side horse, Rich Smith on the rings, Art Weidner on all-around, and Gerry Whitson on the rings. Sophomore lettermen included Doug Atkins on the side horse, Alan Galatte on all-around, Gary Gathman on the parallel bars, Mike Hillinger on the parallel bars, Mike McAuley on the trampoline, and Jay Wilson in floor exercise.

Wilson finished seventh at the NCAA meet last season. And, Galatte and Weidner tied for the all-around championship in the conference.

Freshman Tanker Sets Butterfly Record

ISU tankers exhibited a strong young team in the 1969-70 season against tough conference competition. All of the league schools retained their Interstate Conference champions, except ISU's diver Rich Higgins. All of the league's second place finishers were back, too.

Illinois State had 12 lettermen and one record breaking freshman on the squad. The tankers held only three seniors, including Joe Plack in the individual medley, Mike Konow in the sprints, and Ed Moore in diving.

Freshman Tom Hoelle showed up very strong, setting a 2:11.2 200 yard butterfly record by mid-season. Hoelle broke a 2:17.0 record set by Gary Mehl in 1969.

Performing consistently were Dave Burks in the backstroke, Jeff Westwater in distance, and Jeff Bonser in the sprints. Burks held last season's IIAC record of 2:10.5 in the 200 yard backstroke. Steve Graves, another IIAC record holder, Harold Abramson in the sprints, Doug Naffziger in the distances, Keith Liden in the individual medley and backstroke, Gary Mehl in the butterfly, Mike Pula in middle distances, and Jim Schuneman in the breaststroke, also returned as lettermen to the squad.

Indoor Track

Thinclads Take Tough Schedule with Teamwork

Illinois State indoor thinclads came up against a tough six meet schedule with a record breaking squad and a strong sense of team work this season.

Co-captains Ron Zaeske and Joe Scarpino headed the remainder of last season's squad and several promising newcomers. Zaeske was All-American last season and held the 70 yard intermediate and high hurdle records since 1968.

Newcomers included Ralph Williams, IHSAA champion in the pole vault and Normal Community's dash star, Ron Bell. Mark Stevens and Daryl Swaim added more depth to the squad. Stevens, freshman, was fourth in the state 880 run, with a 1:53.5 time, and Swaim, freshman, was sixth in the state shot put, at 59-2. Billy Lewis also added more strength in the sprints.

Roger Weller, in his fifth season as Illinois State's track and field coach, commented that the squad worked hard as a team to make the Redbirds a championship contender for their final season in the Interstate Conference.

Other thinclad standouts were Doug Malinski, defending Illinois Intercollegiate champion in the long jump; Ken Carlson, defending a 1:54.6 record in the 880; and Alan Taylor, defending a 4:17.1 record in the mile run. Mike Rodino, John Pharo, Carlson, and Zaeske also defended a 3:22.1 mile relay record.

Thinclads Set Six Outdoor Records

Redbird thinclads set six outdoor records on their way to a 4-1 season and a second in the Interstate Conference. The squad, lead by NCAA All-American Ron Zaeske, also took a fourth in the Northern Illinois Relays and a fourth at the Illinois Intercollegiate meet.

Zaeske also shared with his teammates a second at the Kansas Relays. Redbirds placed in the mile relay with Mike Rodino, Ken Carlson, John Pharo and Zaeske. The squad also placed in the distance medley with Tony Edgecomb, Alan Taylor, Zaeske and Carlson.

During the 1969 season, Alan Taylor set an 880 yard record of 1:52.8. Larry Closen set a 14:46.7 record for the three mile run. Zaeske dropped the 440 intermediate hurdle record to :53.2, and the 120 high hurdle record to :14.4. The high jump record fell to Larry Spencer with 6'4 $\frac{3}{4}$ ", and the triple jump was extended by Doug Malinsky with 46'10".

Zaeske captained the Redbirds and led the squad in scoring with 111 points. Joe Scarpino, competing in the shot put, had the most points for a solo event athlete with 44.

Other thinclads outstanding during 1969 were Charles Barrilleaux, Mike Brosseau, Robin Glover and Dale Janssen, all with the weights. Stan Dilley and Angelo Rinchiuso showed up as added strength in the distance races. Clarence Williams and Bill Surprenant held the sprints. Joe Hagenbruch worked with the hurdles. In the high jump, Trent Richards sprang to a 6-4 mark. Terry Likens lead in the pole vault event.

Stan Dilley, left, and Larry Closen give the thinclads a one-two finish in a long distance race.

Golf

Golfers Drive to Highest National Finish in ISU History

Redbird golfers continued their high performance record during the 1969 season: driving, chipping, and putting their way to fourth in national competition, the highest finish in ISU's history. The squad had a 24-3-0 dual meet record, and a 94-26-1 tournament record.

Coach Milt Weisbecker noted that Frank Niepagen lead the squad throughout the season with consistently good performance. "Niepagen," commented Weisbecker, "has to be the most outstanding ISU athlete in any sport."

Niepagen, co-captain with Tom

Jacobsen, was declared All-American for both his sophomore and senior year, effective this season. Weisbecker noted "Jacobsen and Niepagen both were awfully good and would be sorely missed next season."

Illinois State golfers have not lost to any Illinois team in two years. This season was the first year in which they participated in the North Central College Invitational Tournament at Naperville. ISU defeated all 32 teams at the tournament.

Weisbecker explained that the Gulf American Invitational Tournament at Cape Coral, Florida, was one highlight for ISU during the season. Placing 12th of 40 teams, the squad competed against many teams from California and Florida, who golf almost year around.

One disappointment for the squad was the loss to Central Michigan in the IIAC Conference Tournament. ISU won the Pre-Conference Tournament, but were upset to second place in the conference.

Tennis Squad Repeat Their IIAC Conference Championship

Illinois State tennis players repeated their IIAC Conference championship for the 1969 season, with several ISU squad members winning individual conference championships.

Redbirds also won first at the Midwest Tournament, dropping DePaul, Wisconsin State at Oshkosh, and Wisconsin State at Whitewater. The squad also tied for 7th at the NCAA College Division National Tournament.

Seniors Roger Jenks at position number 4, and Rich Gutierrez at number 3, both made conference champions. Conference champions Mat Weig at number 4 and Jim Musgrave at number 6 also won the number 3 doubles championship.

Coach Eugene Hill lead his squad to a 9-7 finish. Losing their first three games to Bradley, Toledo University, and University of Wisconsin, the squad came back to win the next five games straight. The remainder of the season was an inconsistent win and loss record.

Tennis Squad Repeat Their IIAC Conference Championship

Illinois State tennis players repeated their IIAC Conference championship for the 1969 season, with several ISU squad members winning individual conference championships.

Redbirds also won first at the Midwest Tournament, dropping DePaul, Wisconsin State at Oshkosh, and Wisconsin State at Whitewater. The squad also tied for 7th at the NCAA College Division National Tournament.

Seniors Roger Jenks at position number 4, and Rich Gutierrez at number 3, both made conference champions. Conference champions Mat Weig at number 4 and Jim Musgrave at number 6 also won the number 3 doubles championship.

Coach Eugene Hill lead his squad to a 9-7 finish. Losing their first three games to Bradley, Toledo University, and University of Wisconsin, the squad came back to win the next five games straight. The remainder of the season was an inconsistent win and loss record.

Baseball

Redbirds Win First National Title

Illinois State's baseball team won the school's first NCAA college division national championship and finished their season with a 33-5 season.

The Redbirds began their season 10-0, winning every game on their annual Southern tour. However, the team suffered a two game loss to Northwestern University.

At the end of their regular season the Redbirds were 30-5, but three conference games and the conference title were passed up in order to play in the NCAA tournament.

Fifteen teams entered the Mid-East Regional tournament, with ISU meeting five of those teams in six games. The Redbirds won every game for the national championship.

Coach Duffy Bass commented

"every game was real tight, well played, and pressured . . . earning the right to go to the nationals was just as tough as winning."

Tom Klein, Ernie Pedersen, Larry Hallaert, Dave Trayser, and Bob Graczyk were named to the National All-Tourney team. Klein was voted the most outstanding player.

Buzz Capra was voted most valuable player on the Mid-East Regional All-Star team. Klein, Pedersen, and Bob Gawlik were also named to the team. Guy Homoly, unable to play in the NCAA games due to a broken leg, was named All-American.

ISU's 33-5 record was the finest season in the school's history, and led the team to be voted the number one team in the nation by a poll of college coaches.

Intramurals

High Percentage of Students Reached by Variety of Activities

Men's Intramurals reached an estimated 45% of all ISU male students with a varied selection of activities and tournaments, including Inner-Tube Water Polo, offered for the first time. For males in dormitory residence, an estimated 82% were involved in intramural sports.

Intramural director Eugene Hill explained "Intramurals is a logical continuation of the required program, planned so as to secure maximum benefit from instruction through voluntary participation."

Included in the Intramural program were planned activities open to all university students. The program included flag football, tennis, basketball, bowling, volleyball, track and field, swimming, wrestling, and golf.

Milton Neuman, assistant Intramural director, aided in coordination and direction of activities for his first year on staff. As well, Mike Shea and Donna Dubbelde provided planning for Intramural Co-Recreational activities. Co-Rec sports included volleyball, bowling, badminton, softball, golf, and tennis.

Free time was also provided by the Intramural office, making available every facility offered in regular physical education courses.

Braden Promotes Constitution, Union - Auditorium Complex

President Samuel E. Braden feels that the function of a university administrator is that of a facilitator. "My problem is to interpret the actions of the younger generation to the general public. ISU has a good reputation as a teacher education institution and I plan to maintain that image." During the past year, President Braden has worked toward the adoption of a University Constitution and the commencement of construction on the Union-Auditorium Complex.

Board of Regents, University Council Determine ISU Future

Action by three committees determines the future of ISU. In addition to the State Board of Higher Education, there are the locally oriented boards, University Council and the Board of Regents.

The Board of Regents which is composed of prominent people from various cities in Illinois, meets once a month to propose and/or approve university policies. It is also responsible for hiring personnel at both ISU and Northern Illinois, and approves new curriculum programs.

Primarily a faculty organization, the University Council is essentially an advisory group to the President and concerns itself with academic policy.

Richard R. Bond, Vice President of the University and Dean of Faculties

Due to the enormous expansion of Illinois State University over the past decade, the responsibilities of the President have increased proportionately. Therefore it has been necessary for the Vice Presidents to assume some of the duties and concerns that normally fall to the President. In their capacities as Vice Presidents of the University, these men may act in place of the President. In addition, they are each in charge of an area of ISU. Dean of the Faculties maintains academic excellence through close supervision of personnel and curriculum. The Dean of Student Services concerns himself with the students and their needs, while the Dean of Administrative Services controls the facilities and employment of the non-teaching staff.

14,700 students at ISU have to be housed, fed, educated, entertained, financed, publicized, protected, counseled, and, in many instances, employed. The responsibility lies on President Braden's shoulders, but the actual mechanics of these various operations lay with the numerous deans and directors, most of whom have offices in Hovey. It is through their untiring efforts that the machinery of the campus continues to function smoothly.

Management of the University Farm is a major responsibility of the Department of Agriculture. The farm provides agriculture students with very valuable experience and an excellent on-campus opportunity for experimentation in the field. Areas of study within the department include crops, dairy, beef, hogs, sheep and horticulture. Judging teams sent to collegiate contests consistently performed well.

Myriad Activities Await Girl Physical Education Majors

The Department of Health and Physical Education for Women again sponsored its annual activities, specifically the Orchesis Concert and the Varunas Swim Show. Various workshops, clinics and lectures were held for teachers and students interested in problems and techniques in physical education. Members of the ISU faculty were on the planning committee for the National AAHPER Convention held in Chicago March 11-14, 1970. Topics discussed ranged from student participation to dance clubs.

A wide variety of departments is under the general direction of the College of Arts and Sciences, namely: Biological Science, Chemistry, Economics, English, Foreign Languages, Geography-Geology, History, Library Science, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology-Anthropology, and Speech. Due to the established comprehensive major, a student whose interests are too diverse for a single discipline can spread himself over a wide area.

Within the Department of Biological Sciences, four sections were created to bring together staff members with similar interests: Developmental, Environmental, Functional and Structural. The faculty did much research into the areas of botany, zoology, microbiology, physiology, genetics, health and biology. Many specimens have been added to the department's Natural History Museum, Herbarium, and Parasitology collections.

This goal reflects the department's interest in teaching with utilization of research as to augment and better the instructional program. Conferences, lectures and seminars also aided in this endeavor.

Several new courses added to the Department of English curriculum indicate the Janus-faced influence in the area. American-Afro literature, McLuhanism, a William and Henry James seminar (in cooperation with the Department of

In addition to the opportunities to travel, the area also houses an extensive learning laboratory plus the Margaret Ellis Library in Adlai E. Stevenson Hall. A proposed German M.A. degree program and a degree of specialist in French Sixth Year have been sent to the Graduate School for approval.

Dr. Roger J. Champagne, Head of Department of History

During the past school year, the Department of History has implemented an Honors program in the field. Two new courses were added to the course of study in the areas of nineteenth century Europe and the U. S. Constitution. David Willson, a professor on leave of absence from the University of Minnesota conducted courses in English history. Other renowned lecturers were brought to the campus as an outgrowth of the lecture series.

Milner Moves to Student Credit Cards for Book Checkout

School librarianship is the principal area of instruction for the Department of Library Science. For the first time, last year, a course in Independent Study was offered. The department sponsored the Eleanor Weir Welch Lecture, the School Library Institute, and the Public Librarian's Workshop. Milner has modernized its charge-out system by using credit card type student identification cards.

Mathematics In-Service Institute still Flourishing

Mathematics is a necessary prerequisite to understanding accounting principles.

Due to the continuing support of the National Science Foundation, the Pre-Service Institute for Prospective Teachers of Mathematics remained active. This program allows student teachers to return to campus each week and consult with professors and other students. The Department of Mathematics is seeking an advanced graduate program to which the installation of the new analog and digital computer laboratory has substantially contributed.

Philosophy Emphasizes Critical Thinking, Interdisciplinary Methods

ISU's Department of Philosophy sponsored the thirteenth annual meeting of the Illinois Philosophy Conference last October. Most stress in this subject is in interdisciplinary matters. As yet there is no major in philosophy. The unique subject matter blends well with any other area and emphasizes critical thinking, along with the present courses of logic, ethics, metaphysics, and epistemology. Future curriculum will include religion.

During the year, the Department of Physics opened its planetarium lectures to the entire student body. ISU is the only state university in Illinois to have such a haven for moon and star gazers. Of equal merit was a six-week long summer institute financed by the National Science Foundation, designed to make the study of physics more attractive. A fifteen session inservice program throughout the year, supplemented the summer experiments.

Trains Local Government Personnel in Regional Planning

Dr. Hibbert R. Roberts, Acting Head of Department of Political Science

At present, the Department of Political Science is concerned with the selection of a chairman. A training program in regional planning for local government personnel was funded by the federal government. Two book manuscripts were completed, the topics being NATO and a systems approach to urbanization. Faculty members participated on many committees of public service including the Great Decisions and the Illinois Constitution Research group.

Psychology Re-Locates in House to Celebrate Third Year

The Department of Psychology celebrated its third birthday, by moving into a new house, located at 225 North University Street, one block north of Schroeder Hall. The house was a present from the University. In addition to its growth house-wise, the department has increased its staff and added several new courses to the curriculum. The faculty has conducted extensive research and experiments in the realm of human behavior.

Separate majors and minors in anthropology and social work are in the planning stages by the Department of Sociology-Anthropology. The past year has seen an experiment in the teaching of large freshman classes by the use of tutors holding a bachelors degree under the supervision of Dr. Paul Baker. New offerings include political sociology, sociology of Urban Areas, sociology of law, racial identity, and advanced social psychology.

The Department of Speech actually includes four overlapping academic programs. In addition to the Speech Communication sequence, there is also Speech Pathology and Audiology, Radio-Television-Film, and Theatre. Students in the field are encouraged to put their knowledge into practice on the stage, through the motion picture screen, via microphone, from the platform, and in the classroom situation.

Links Accounting to Mathematics, Economics

The goal of the Department of Accounting is to produce a well-rounded accountant who is not only competent in his field, but also has a good general education in communications, mathematics, economics, and the behavioral sciences. Five advanced courses were added to the curriculum, along with the initiation of a Master's degree in business, with concentration in the areas of accounting and data processing.

Business Education's Forefather Among First in Nation

Although the present Department of Business Education is the same 'age' as its associates in the College of Business, its predecessor was one of the first in the nation to provide programs for the education of business teachers. An attempt was made this past year to revise the existing graduate sequence and to develop a sixth year plan. As in the past three years, the Business Education faculty administered court reporter tests for the State of Illinois.

Offers Comprehensive Business Administration Major

A comprehensive Business Administration major was the only undergraduate program available to majors in this non-teaching discipline. New courses include Kaleidoscope of Man, Business in a Legal Environment (to be offered this coming summer), and several plans for courses in the insurance area. Increased emphasis was placed upon the mathematical background of the students, as well as interdisciplinary work.

College of Education Largest in Number of Undergraduates

The fact that ISU ranks seventh in the nation in production of certified teachers is of major concern to the College of Education. Along with the five education departments, the college also governs the two laboratory schools, Metcalf and University High School. Elementary and Special Education are the two largest departments in relation to undergraduate majors and Educational Administration has the largest doctoral program on campus.

Dr. Henry J. Hermanowicz, Dean of the College of Education

Initiates Master's Degree in Instructional Media

The Department of Education initiated its Master's Degree in Instructional Media during the past year. The department is mainly for service without majors as such, except in the junior high program. Included in the area are such offerings as secondary education, professional sequence, instructional media, measurement and statistics, supervision, reading, guidance and counseling, and foundations.

Dr. Leo E. Eastman, Head of Department of Education

Educational Administration Attracts Graduates

Only one area in the University deals exclusively with graduate students and that is the Department of Educational Administration which has the largest doctoral program at ISU. Along with holding the annual Administrator's Round-up, the department has also sponsored lectures by two of the nation's top authorities in the field of school law, Drs. Leo Garber and M. M. Chambers.

Videotape has played an increasingly major part in the activities of the Department of Professional Laboratory Experiences. The visual recorder has been used to supervise student teachers, orientate newcomers, as a training instrument, for demonstrations and for seminars. During the spring term, WCIA made a film of an ISU student teacher on assignment throughout his entire teaching experience. The department processes 2000 students annually.

Plan to Combine Areas within Department of Special Education

Plans for initiating a clinical teaching center and the phasing out of the program for the educable mentally handicapped and the neurologically impaired were completed during the past year and carried out by the Department of Special Education. Much research was conducted within the major areas of the department; mentally retarded, maladjusted, speech correction, deaf and hard of hearing, physically handicapped, and visually handicapped. Several off-campus activities were funded to give Special Education majors first-hand knowledge of their subject.

Dissention over the place of the laboratory schools on the ISU campus has led to a re-look at the purpose and function of University High School. Possible trends indicate that in the future the school may become a separate entity from the College of Education, perhaps under some type of governing board. A junior participation program from the Secondary Education classes required students to observe, participate, and teach a lesson to a particular class assigned to them.

plans for the SMART building which will include an expanded gallery, studio area and classrooms for general education art classes. Other educational activities included lectures, workshops and demonstrations by well-known artists.

Music Department Sponsors Over 160 Concerts, Recitals

Within the Department of Music, a student can specialize in Woodwinds, String, General Music, Choral, and Applied Music. Over 160 concerts, primarily student and faculty recitals were performed along with the annual Messiah presentation and the Lowell Mason show. In addition, the department sponsored a Music Clinic Festival with divisions for choral, bands, and state bands. A high degree of musicianship is expected along with specialized teaching skills.

The background of the page is a high-contrast, orange-toned photograph. It appears to be a close-up of a person's face, with the right side (from the viewer's perspective) being mostly in shadow. A dark, textured object, possibly a piece of clothing or a hat, is visible in the lower right corner, partially covering the face. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

Senate Investigates Student Issues

This year the Student Senate has strived to become more involved in the academic affairs of the University. Convinced of the importance of student participation in the University's government, the Senate sponsored numerous bills and investigations concerning such topics as guest hour policy, apartment age requirements, the parking problem, and communication between the Senate and the student body. Especially evident this year was the Senate's involvement with the New ISU Constitution. On February 24, 1970, the Student Senate was abolished in favor of a reconstructed Academic Senate composed of both students and faculty. This organization will govern the student body, giving students a stronger voice in the University affairs. In the future, the Senate plans to create an association which will work closely with the Academic Senate.

This year the University Union Board planned a program which would best meet the needs of the university community. Fireside Chats including such topics as "Is Christmas Relevant?", "Sororities and Fraternities on Campus," and "Blacks in America" with Julian Bond, were held to encourage student participation. Fine Arts lectures and exhibits, such as the Bergaman Film Festival, were designed to complement classroom learning. In order to provide recreational opportunities, the Board sponsored dances and held "Games and Tournaments." Special events this year included a ski trip, an international fair, and the annual Roman Banquet for all Union Board service workers. In addition to these activities, the Board attempts to provide an environment for developing student leadership skills.

VIDETTE

National News Reported

The '70's introduced the world to a new decade. In attempting to keep the campus informed, educated, and entertained, the Vidette staff worked toward improving the school newspaper. Throughout both semesters of this year, the Vidette has incorporated many changes in order to give more professional atmosphere to the paper. The additional coverage of national and international happenings as they relate to our university was one idea used in order to better the paper during the first semester. At the start of the second semester, the Vidette was increased to three issues a week, with the hope of eventually becoming a daily paper. The staff, composed of sixty reporters, seven main editors, and numerous contributors worked diligently to publish the Videttes of the '69-'70 school term.

Index Reflects Changing University

The challenge of compiling a descriptive word and picture story of 1970 was confidently undertaken by this year's Index staff. Beginning in March, 1969, Barb Hughes, Editor-in-Chief of the 1970 Index, planned the general format for the annual. With the help of ten editors and numerous staff members, Barb included various changes in the coverage of ISU's 69-70 school year. Besides the traditional sections, an eight page "special feature" and an eight page closing section were added to the book. Hopefully, these changes will create more interest among the students in using the book as a totality and not just as a reference source for a particular student's picture. In order to present the best book to the community, changes must be made to go along with the changes in our rapidly growing university.

PREVIEW GUIDES

"Preview ISU" is a program of orientation for incoming Freshmen that was established four years ago at Illinois State. The main purpose and goal of the program is the creation of attitudes within each Freshman that will enable him to profit directly from the educational opportunities which are made available to him at ISU. The program lasts from five to six weeks each summer. Nine student leaders serve as Preview Guides and host Freshmen and their parents during their stay on campus.

AWS

The Associated Women Students organization offered a purposeful program for college co-eds who were concerned with seeking their self-identity as women. A special seminar held in November stressed the woman's role in the "Minority," "Political," and "Sexual" revolutions. PEM CLUB Front L to R Bobbie Hall, Vice President, Ellen Abshire, Advisor; Back Judy Sancken, Treasurer; Joan Streit, President

Physics Club

The Physics Club, which is affiliated with the National Society of Physics Students, aims at expanding knowledge of science, especially providing job-opening awareness to students not in education. This year the club assembled satellite tracking equipment, which they displayed in the spring.

PHYSICS CLUB Front L to R Leslie Hodges, Vice President-Treasurer; Juergen Schroeder, Advisor; Dennis Dunn, Secretary; Back Ronald Mika, President

PEM Club

The purpose of the Women's Physical Education Club is to extend social, professional, and recreational activities to further the understanding of physical education. Activities included a fall retreat for freshman orientation, a stunt show, and a senior breakfast. Guest speakers were also featured.

Shufflin' Shoes

Keeping to their club motto: "Keep it simple, keep it folk," the Shufflin' Shoes Club is open to anyone who wants to have a great time and meet new people. The club met every Wednesday evening in the McCormick "golden room" for an hour and a half of dancing.

Dancing is the life of today's youth.

Music moves young people into action.

Special Ed Club

The purpose of Special Education Club is to interest students in Special Education and familiarize them and give them experience with handicapped children. The club bi-monthly sponsored Fun Night for handicapped children and monthly visited the women at the Rusk-Haven Shelter Home.

SPECIAL ED Front L to R Kathy Gianatiasio, Secretary; Judy Moschel, Treasurer; Cathy Bartell, President-Elect; Row 2 Truby Swickard, Mary Lou Saling, Cathie Perez, Joan Moticka, President; Back Donald Farimond, Advisor; Jan Riffle, Barbara Doyle

AWARENESS . . .

Taking the time to find out . . .

Knowledge gained through questioning our surroundings . . . ISU.

AWARENESS . . .
*Not accepting at face value,
 but listening, talking . . .
 dreaming with your eyes open . . .
 Deciding for yourself.*

AWARENESS . . .
Taking the time to enjoy . . .
to inquire . . . to know . . .
Awareness is Life.

To Larry Wells and Norm Semmelroth who represented Keys, to Bill Snell from S. K. Smith, to Stan Lieberman from Root, my entire 1970 INDEX staff, Russ Steele, and my roommates . . . for your patience, ideas, laughter and understanding through the good days, and especially the bad days . . . thanks.

Barb
